Oulton Park.... NG gets it's day in "The Park"

It is amazing to think that this is the penultimate round of the 2021 series, in this COVID foreshortened season. We have already been to Brands Hatch, Donington, Castle Combe and Cadwell, but now the riders focus is the 2.7mile demanding Oulton track. Oulton has a mix of blind bends, undulating straights plus daunting Lakeside section from Cascades, through Island Bend to the banked Shell Oils hairpin, ending the lap with the front wheel lofting and aptly named deer Leap.

NG have just one day here, but still two sets of championship points rather than the three on a normal race weekend, meaning a slip up could prove costly, especially at this pivotal point of the season.

All that said Oulton is a track that splits opinion with the riders, as it has a fearsome reputation if you get-it-wrong, but it rewards bravery and confidence....who will click with the track first ?

Get to the vast spectator banking nice and early as it's a popular place to watch racing.
